

The Red Hot Rhythm Rustlers

This is the band that brings you The Silver Screen Cowboy Project “Live” stage show – the tribute show to the B-western cowboys of the 30s, 40s, and 50s that is catching on everywhere! The Red Hot Rhythm Rustlers combine the talents of Audrey McLaughlin, Gale Rogers, Dawn Pett, Tom Boyer, and Marvin O'Dell. Their fun-filled show of western swing and cowboy tunes delights audiences of all ages. They can give you songs about the old west, the contemporary west, and the west of the B-western movies. The multi award-winning harmonies provided by the gals don't come any sweeter, and the astounding guitar playing of Tom Boyer will leave the listener wanting for more. The 2009 WMA Songwriter of the Year, Marvin O'Dell, captures the audience not only in the lyrical stories told in many original songs but also with his unique lead vocals. The variety of talent and the passion for the music seen in The Red Hot Rhythm Rustlers holds audiences spellbound from start to finish.
